

GENERAL PARK RULES

Welcome at Duinrell. In order to make your stay and that of other guests as pleasant as possible, we have composed a number of rules and guidelines. By entering the Duinrell site you automatically indicate your acceptance of the Duinrell house rules. The full overview can be read at www.duinrell.com/houserules. We wish you a fantastic stay!

EMERGENCY

You will find the First Aid post including AED at the porter's lodge (24/7). In the event of fire or accidents, immediately notify the fire brigade/ambulance on the national emergency phone: 112 first, and then Duinrell on +31 70 5155 333.

ACCESS

Entry to the amusement park is included in your stay. Entry to the Tiki Pool depends on the time of year and the type of your stay. Visiting guests are welcome, but you must register them at the Duinrell reception. Visiting guests who stay the night will be charged the overnight rate. Day visitors have to buy a day ticket at the cash register. Day visitors are required to leave Duinrell that same day. If they do not, we will charge a lodging fee.

In order to prevent unwelcome guests from entering the park, you will receive a Duinrell-ID. The Duinrell-ID should always be displayed at the entrance of the Duinrell site and you also have to be able to show your Duinrell-ID and identity document at any moment during your stay. Children up to and including the age of three years are given free admission and do not need a Duinrell-ID.

Children under 12 years of age will only be allowed entry to the amusement park or Tiki Pool if accompanied by an adult. Each accommodation must be occupied by at least one person over the age of 21.

Entry to the amusement park and Tiki Pool is at your own risk. Each attraction and waterslide has its own safety requirements, which stand posted at each attraction and waterslide. Check the complete safety regulations on www.duinrell.com/safety. Wearing a floatation device in the Tiki Pool is mandatory for anyone under a height of 120 cm, even when he/she is in the possession of a swimming certificate (this rule does not apply in Playa).

Pets are welcome at Duinrell as long as they are leashed and do not cause a disturbance. Guests with pets are required to carry and use clean-up baggies. These are available, free of charge, at the Duinrell reception.

You may park one car free of charge per Lodge tent, Duingalow or campsite. Extra cars must be parked at P4 at a cost of € 4.25 per car per night. If, on the day of departure, you would like to spend the rest of the day at Duinrell, please ask our reception for late check-outs.

Between the hours of 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. operating motor vehicles is prohibited within the park because of the night rest. Therefore, it is not possible to leave Duinrell by motor vehicle before 7 a.m. If you arrive at Duinrell after 11 p.m., you may park your car temporarily at the P2 car park. It is not allowed to be inside the amusement park after 11 p.m.

In the event of violation of the house rules, please notify the Duinrell security, phone: +31 70 5155 128 (available 24/7).

All vehicles are prohibited on the premises of the amusement park and in the woodlands and dunes. Scooters with a yellow license plate are not allowed to be driven at Duinrell.

SMOKING POLICY

Smoking is prohibited in the Duingalows, in the Lodge tents, in the Duinhostel, in all public areas of Duinrell, in the attractions and in the queues of the attractions.

Should the park rules be disobeyed, Duinrell is authorised to immediately deny the parties concerned entry or accommodation. Duinrell maintains a no refund policy.
